Code of Conduct

The code of conduct set out below is a condition of use for a Zero Fare Pass.

Non-compliance with this code may result in the withdrawal of the pass and payment of the full adult fare.

1. Not assault or verbally abuse any other passenger or the driver.
2. Not commit or cause any damage to the vehicle including graffiti.
3. Not steal any item from other passengers or equipment from the bus.
4. Not smoke while on the bus.
5. Not harass any passenger or the driver.
6. Not engage in spitting.
7. Not open emergency doors or throw items from the bus.
8. Not use foul language or abusive gestures to other passengers, the driver or occupants of other vehicles.
9. Not commit any other anti-social behaviour which could offend other passengers or the driver.
10. Recognise that failure to produce a valid travel pass will require you to pay the full fare.
